COL. PALMER A GUEST

Head of National G. A. R. Visitor in Bennington

Col. D. J. Palmer of Iowa, national commander in chief of the G. A. R., was a guest of Bennington veterans Saturday evening at an informal camp fire.

Col. Palmer came here with very brief notice so that the attendance was not large but the gathering was one of the most enjoyable ever held in the post rooms. He was accompanied by Capt. Chas. E. Beach of Burlington and the two were guests of Col. Hannon over Sunday.

Col. Palmer is an interesting speaker and a good story teller and he was also persuaded to sing two or three selections. Col. Hannon presided. There were also brief remarks from several others and musical selections by Mrs. Guy Norton, Mrs. Richard Gerkin, Mrs. Helena Downs and a male trio and a recitation by Howard Rudd.

A DICKENS PROGRAM

Given By the Fortnightly Saturday Afternoon.

The Fortnightly gave a creditable Dickens program on Saturday afternoon although the unusual number of local entertainments last week interfered somewhat with the original plans, finally making it necessary to omit one of the dramatic sketches. Every feature presented, however, was a gem in its way and the quaint costumes seeming in every case to suit the character exactly. There was a source of much interest and merriment.

Charles Dickens was never more like himself than on this occasion and he seemed to take great pride and pleasure in presenting some of his most familiar characters to the audience, having for each one an appropriate word of introduction. Little Nell's grandfather was indeed a dear old gentleman, and Fagin as villainous in appearance as one might find in reading about him.

All the ladies seemed to grasp the very spirit of characterization and every impersonation was excellent. Mrs. Micawber and her children including Estelle Bennett and Herman Sharp made a picture not soon to be forgotten, and Mrs. Parley certainly lived up to her reputation of being "the delight of the nobility and gentry."

Mrs. Emma L. Harwood, in Mrs. Gummidge's soliloquy was the most lone and lorn of women and the quarrel between Sairy Gamp and Betsy Prig as acted by Mrs. P. T. Sexton and Mrs. A. S. Davis, was admirably done, making it an amusing bit of real comedy.

The old English songs by Miss Vera Suter, accompanied by Mrs. A. V. Varney, were very sweetly sung. They included two songs by Sir Henry Bishop whose compositions were the favorite concert airs of the Dickens era. The program was as follows:

Charles Dickens Mrs. Mary Adams
Lady Dedlock Mrs. E. B. Huling
Esther Summerson Miss Catherine Huling

ANOTHER GERMAN SEA RAIDER IS AT NEWPORT NEWS

Kronprinz Wilhelm After Eight Months at Sea Seeks Harbor

SHE WILL PROBABLY BE INTERNED

Passed British and French Warships With German Flag Flying—Many on Board Are Ill.

Newport News, Va., April 12.—The German converted cruiser Kronprinz Wilhelm, the elusive raider of commerce in the south Atlantic, slipped into port here yesterday and asked for fuel and provisions. Many times reported destroyed, the former North German Lloyd liner had evaded hostile warships for eight months while she sent 14 merchantmen to the bottom. Her officers said she was forced to steal her way past four allied cruisers off the Virginia capes to reach refuge.

"We go in without being seen by the enemy and we can get out the same way," declared her commander, Lieut.-Capt. Paul Thierfelder, formerly navigating officer of the German cruiser Karlsruhe, in a statement last night. When she dropped anchor the Kronprinz Wilhelm had less than 25 tons of coal and scanty provisions for the crew of 500 men and 61 prisoners from British merchant ships, sunk in the south Atlantic. Of the 14 ships sunk by the 15,000-ton cruiser, nine were British, four French and one Norwegian. The value of these ships and their cargoes, officers of the Wilhelm last night estimated at $7,000,000.

When the Kronprinz Wilhelm arrived off Thimble shoals, after passing in the Virginia capes early yesterday the United States submarines the G-1 and D-2 met her. The appearance of the submarines caused considerable surprise among the crew, but there was no demonstration as the vessels conveyed the German raider to quarantine where Dr. MacCafferty, United States quarantine officer, boarded her. Cmdr. Thierfelder reported 66 of the crew and prisoners were ill with beriberi and requested that they be taken to a hospital.

The Kronprinz Wilhelm followed in the wake of the interned Prinz Eitel Friedrich, which arrived in Newport a month ago Saturday, after a thrilling and effective operations for the German navy. In her raid of the seas since she slipped out of New York harbor, August 3 last, a German merchant and passenger steamer, the Kronprinz Wilhelm never touched land and took 960 prisoners from various vessels destroyed.

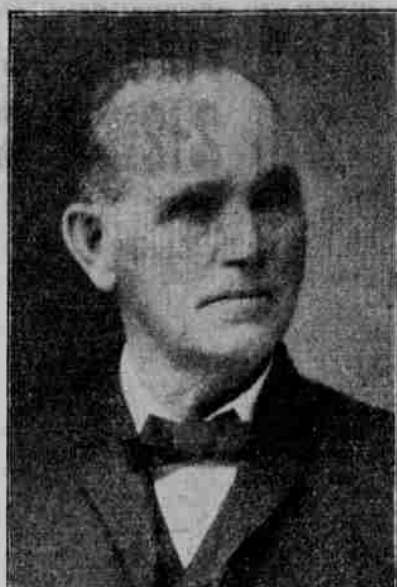

Most of these prisoners were sent to South American ports at different times and German ships which were raiding in response to wireless calls. The 61 now on board, who will be landed in Newport News today, are British sailors from the steamships Tamar, destroyed March 25, and the Coleby, destroyed March 27 last.

The raider brought as thrilling a story as did the Eitel Friedrich. Her record of destruction, however, was accomplished with only four guns, two taken from the German cruiser Karlsruhe and two captured from the British merchant steamer La Corrientes sunk October 7, 1914. The most connected story of the long voyage from New York—255 days in all—was told last night by Over-Lieut. Al. Warneke, the first officer who left New York harbor with the ship.

We left August 3 and put out into the great big ocean," said Lieut. Warneke. "We were not a warship then, but three days out, off the Bermudas, we met the German cruiser Karlsruhe. We took from her two three-inch guns which we mounted on the bow of the ship, and took Lieut. Capt. Thierfelder, her navigating officer, to command our ship. We also took 17 of the Karlsruhe's junior officers and men, took on more coal and provisions and put to sea. We made for the south Atlantic and the first ship we encountered was the British ship Indian Prince, which we sank September 4, 1914. From that time on we remained on the ocean, destroying the enemy where we might find her."

Several weeks ago, the officer said, the Prinz Wilhelm was sighted off the coast of Brazil and was reported to have been captured by British vessels. "This hope gone," they steamed north through the middle of the Atlantic and were in touch with events transpiring regarding the Prinz Eitel Friedrich.

Collector of Customs Norman R. Hamilton reached Newport News from Norfolk early in the day after the Prinz Wilhelm had anchored in the James river in almost the same place taken by the Prinz Eitel when she reached Newport News March 10. The collector went aboard, instructing

All but one of their children with their families have gathered at the home of the aged couple on Mechanic street, into which Mr. and Mrs. Phillips moved 50 years ago this present month of April and where they have since continually resided. A number of residents have called during the day to extend congratulations.

The German commander went ashore with the collector and asked for 300 tons of coal and supplies for three days. Collector Hamilton, after consulting Washington, allowed him 150 tons, which will be put aboard today, and provisions for three days. PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

Double Hearing at Pownal on Tuesday, April 27.

There will be a double hearing by the public service commission at Pownal Tuesday forenoon, April 27, on two complaints filed by the Pownal selectmen, E. E. Potter, A. J. Merchant and H. W. Morgan.

One complaint is a protest against rebuilding the Boston and Maine railroad station on the site of the structure recently destroyed when a freight train broke in two and cars ploughed through the building. In their protest the selectmen state that similar accidents have occurred previous to the wrecking of the building and in the opinion of the selectmen the site is a dangerous one for a station.

The other complaint is that the tracks of the Bennington and North Adams street railway at the crossing on Main street opposite the Methodist church have sunk several inches below the highway grade making the crossing dangerous for the passage of vehicles. In addition the selectmen complain that the cars of the Berkshire street railway company are operated at a dangerous rate of speed. Both complaints, the selectmen state, have been made to the officials of the company without redress.

The hearings are called for 10 o'clock in the forenoon at the station.
